Senior Practitioner Breaking Barriers Cambridgeshire

A message from our CEO, Allan Myatt

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Senior Practitioner within our Breaking Barriers Cambridgeshire Service.

As an organisation, Ormiston Families has agreed that our strategy for the next 3 years is to enable children, young people and their families to feel safer, healthier and more resilient. We also recognise that we need to build the resilience of the organisation, so we are fit to meet the challenges ahead.

Over the next few months we will continue to develop the strategy identifying key objectives for the next 3 years and making necessary organisational and operational changes to enable us to deliver the strategy in the new financial year. We see the recruitment of this post as critical in helping us achieve these objectives.

I wish you the best of luck with your application.

Best regards,

Ormiston Families is one of the leading charities working with children, young people and families in the East of England. We take early and preventative action to support families to be safe, healthy and resilient. All our services help people to build stronger networks, learn from experience and feel in control of their own wellbeing. We can only achieve this with the people who choose to work for us.

About Breaking Barriers

The Breaking Barriers project aims to minimise the impact of imprisonment on children. Our services support family relationships to continue developing throughout the sentence, which plays a critical role in helping to reduce reoffending rates.

Breaking Barriers supports children and young people who have a close family member in prison – helping them to understand their situation and to manage their own feelings.

About the role

We are seeking a Senior Practitioner to support children and young people in Cambridgeshire, and to build the capacity of schools and other professionals to recognise and support these children.

About you

An excellent team player with high level communication skills. You will have a passion for supporting children, young people and families and provide them with an excellent client service.

The position is part-time for 28 hours per week. It will be home based and working in schools in Cambridgeshire. Starting salary is £21,928 pro rata per annum.

Probationary Period

The post is subject to a probationary period of six months during which your progress will be monitored in accordance with agreed objectives.

Application Process – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Applicants must send in a completed online application form; you must demonstrate that you hold the personal competencies required for the role and how you meet the relevant skills, knowledge, and experience.

Ormiston Families is an equal opportunities employer. We value diversity and welcome applications from all sections of the community. We ask individuals to complete a monitoring form to help us monitor the diversity of applicants. It will be separated from your application form and will not be seen by anyone involved in recruitment to this job.

Please note: Only successful applicants will be contacted by Ormiston Families.

Job Description

Job Title: Senior Practitioner

Service: Breaking Barriers

Location: Cambridgeshire

Job purpose:

To identify, plan, carry through and evaluate a range of interventions and activities for children and young people with a parent/carer in prison who may feel isolated or excluded in their home community, ensuring that these programmes meet individual need and further the aims of Ormiston Families.

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

- To plan, evaluate and deliver 1:1 interventions/activities across the county in order to achieve identified outcomes for children, young people and families affected by imprisonment.
- To carry out initial assessments with parents and schools following referrals to the project and identify and agree individual outcomes for children and young people.
- To work 1-1 in schools with children needing emotional support who have been affected by imprisonment using a range of resources and activities appropriate to their needs.
- To lead, undertake and/or oversee assessments of need (including use of the Early Help Assessment as necessary) identifying and agreeing outcomes for individual children, young people and families affected by imprisonment.
- To provide support and information on a range of issues to children, young people and families affected by imprisonment and signpost or refer to other supporting agencies as appropriate.
- To attend professional and multi-agency meetings (e.g.: Child in Need) to represent the child as required.
- To provide supervision to volunteers as required.
- To represent Ormiston at a range of agreed external meetings throughout the county and to work in partnership with other organisations, working to raise awareness of the impact of imprisonment and to influence positive change in policy and practice in order to achieve identified outcomes for children, young people and families.
- To promote the service across the county, using a range of mechanisms, in order that schools and agencies are aware of the opportunities and can refer appropriately.
- To keep (and/or oversee others') records and ensure the maintenance of accurate recording systems related to Service/Project activities and / or service users.
- To prepare reports as required on activities undertaken with children, young people and families for a range of purposes including reporting on identified outcomes.

- To work within Ormiston's mission and values and all Ormiston policies and procedures including Safeguarding, Equality and Diversity, Participation, Quality and Health and Safety. Comply with relevant external standards and Quality Marks.
- To carry out any additional appropriate duties as instructed by the Service Manager.

Generic Responsibilities – All Posts/Employees

The following are applicable to all posts and all employees.

General Duties

To undertake any other reasonable duty, which is appropriate to the grade when requested by Senior Staff.

To be familiar with and comply with all Ormiston Families policies, procedures, protocols and guidelines.

To demonstrate an understanding and commitment to the charity's values.

Professional and Personal Development

All staff must ensure that they are aware of their responsibilities by attending Mandatory Training and Induction programme.

All staff will have a formal appraisal with their manager at least every 12 months. Once performance/training objectives have been set, the staff member's progress will be reviewed on a regular basis so that new objectives can be agreed and set, in order to maintain progress in the service delivery.

All staff will be expected to take responsibility for their own professional development and will be supported to achieve development opportunities as appropriate.

Health and Safety

All staff have a responsibility to maintain health and safety of self and others within the performance of duties in accordance with health and safety policies, and to undertake specific health and safety responsibilities as directed. All staff have a responsibility to adhere to the Risk Management Policies & Procedures.

All staff are required to contribute to the control of risk, and must report immediately any incident, accident or near miss involving service users, carers, staff, contractors or members of the public.

Confidentiality and Information Governance

All staff may gain or have access to confidential information about the assessment and/or treatment of service users, information affecting the public, private or work related staff information, or Charity matters. A breach of confidentiality will have occurred where any such information has been divulged, passed (deliberately or accidentally) or overheard by any unauthorised person or person(s). Breaches of confidentiality can result in disciplinary action, which may involve dismissal.

All staff must maintain a high standard of quality in corporate and clinical record keeping, ensuring information is always recorded accurately, appropriately and kept up to date. Staff must only access information, whether paper, electronic or in other media which is authorised to them as part of their duties.

All staff must ensure compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

Safeguarding: Adults and Children (Section 11 of the Children Act 2004)

Every member of staff has a responsibility to be aware of and follow at all times, the relevant national and local policy in relation to safeguarding children and safeguarding adults.
