

Ormiston Families

Brighter futures

Team Leader
Breaking Barriers
Bedfordshire &
Cambridgeshire

A message from our CEO, Allan Myatt

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Team Leader on the Breaking Barriers Service.

As an organisation, Ormiston Families has agreed that our strategy for the next 3 years is to enable children, young people and their families to feel safer, healthier and more resilient. We also recognise that we need to build the resilience of the organisation, so we are fit to meet the challenges ahead.

Over the next few months we will continue to develop the strategy identifying key objectives for the next 3 years and making necessary organisational and operational changes to enable us to deliver the strategy in the new financial year. We see the recruitment of this post as critical in helping us achieve these objectives.

I wish you the best of luck with your application.

Best regards,

Who Are Ormiston Families?

Ormiston Families is one of the leading charities working with children, young people and families in the East of England. We take early and preventative action to support families to be safe, healthy and resilient. All our services help people to build stronger networks, learn from experience and feel in control of their own wellbeing. We can only achieve this with the people who choose to work for us.

About Our Breaking Barriers

The Breaking Barriers Project is a service which works with Children, Young People and Families who have been affected by the imprisonment of a parent or close family member. Our service offers one-to-one support to Children and Young People to maintain a connection with the imprisoned parent, support their emotional wellbeing and build resilience to enable them to reach their full potential. The work we do plays a critical role in helping to reduce reoffending rates.

About the role

To provide outcome-based support designed to address the needs of children, young people affected children and young people (CYP) with a parent/carer or close family member in prison who may feel isolated or excluded in their home community, ensuring that these programmes meet individual need and further the aims of Ormiston Families.

As Team Leader, you will balance case management as well as line manage the Breaking Barriers Practitioners in the Cambridgeshire and Bedfordshire areas and lead a collaborative approach to setting best practice and a passion for improving the safety, health and resilience of children and young people.

Safer Recruitment

Application Process / Post Requirement

You must demonstrate that you meet the competencies; experience, knowledge, skills, and qualifications, that are required for this role (see Job Description below).

You must complete and submit an online application form (via the 'Work with Us' section of our website) detailing in the personal statement section, how you meet the criteria.

Rights to Work in the UK (RTW) (in person or remote)

Recruitment Manager will need to see your original documents of your Rights to Work in the UK.

- UK Passport / Full UK Birth Certificate / Drivers Licence / Utilities Bill (proof of address)
 - EUSS Permanent Status or Pre-Status Share Code
 - Current EU/EAA/Swiss Citizen Passport
 - EU/EAA/Swiss Citizen Visa
 - Home Office Certificate
- If the interview is held in person, we will verify hard copy documents which you will need to bring with you to the interview.
 - If the interview is held remotely, you will need to email copies of your RTW documents to the Recruiting Manager before the interview. At the remote interview [Teams, Skype, Zoom] you will need to have the original hard copy documents available so the relevant checks can be undertaken.

Safeguarding and DBS Requirements for Your Role

Ormiston Families is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and adults at risk and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. DBS checks or police vetting will be required for relevant posts.

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Checks:

- As this position meets the definition of regulated activity under the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012, appointments to this post will be subject to an enhanced DBS check with barred list check.
- Employment can commence once the check has been satisfactorily completed.
- If you have a conviction on your DBS check, an assessment of the relevance and impact of the conviction in relation to the post will be done to determine if the job offer can be confirmed.
- It is a serious criminal offence to knowingly apply for posts when you have been barred from working with children/young people and/or vulnerable adults.
- Additional questions for roles working with children, young people, or vulnerable adults to be explored at interview.
- As this post involves working either with children and young people or vulnerable adults Warner or Safer care motivational type questions may be asked during the interview process.
- These questions are asked to establish your suitability to work with vulnerable groups by understanding your attitude, behaviour, and responses to situations.
- The questions will relate to your inspiration for working with vulnerable groups, your ability to build relationships and your resilience when working with such groups and may also explore your attitude to the use of authority.
- If you feel you would find these questions about yourself difficult to respond to then you may wish to reflect upon your suitability for the post.

Disclosure

- Ormiston encourages all candidates called for interview to provide details of their criminal record at an early stage in the application process.
 - This information can be sent under separate, confidential cover to the Human Resources hr@ormistonfamilies.org.uk
 - Ormiston Families guarantees that this information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process.
- Unless the nature of the position allows Ormiston Families to ask questions about your entire criminal record only questions about "unspent" convictions as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 will be asked.
- Ormiston Families will ensure that every subject of a DBS Disclosure is aware of the existence of the DBS Code of Practice and make a copy available on request.
- Ormiston Families undertakes to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.
- Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with Ormiston. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of the offences.

Qualification

- Recruitment Manager will need to see your original copies of your qualification either in person or via social media.
- If the interview is held in person, we will verify hard copy documents which you will need to bring with you to the interview.
- If the interview is held via social media, you will need to email copies of your qualification to the recruiting Manager before the interview. At the interview you will need to have the original hard copy documents available so the relevant checks can be undertaken.
- If short-listed and you are required to hold a particular qualification for a post it is your responsibility to provide the relevant certification, to prove you are suitably qualified.
- Failure to produce documentary evidence of qualifications or undertake required courses/training may result in the termination of your employment.
- If a post requires you to take training or additional qualifications then, by accepting this post, you are agreeing to do the training or take the qualifications.

References

- If appointed, we will ask you for referee details which cover your past 3 years of employment, one of which must be your current/most recent employer.

Health Check

- If appointed and to ensure the post does not have a detrimental effect on your health or your health on your work, you will have to complete a health enquiry form, and may be required to have a medical via Occupational Health.
- This is to confirm that you are able to satisfactorily carry out the post without any impact on your health (taking account of any reasonable adjustments required).
- It will be separated from your application form and will not be seen by anyone involved in recruitment to this job.

Job Description

Job Title: Team Leader
Service: Breaking Barriers
Location: Bedfordshire & Cambridgeshire

Job purpose:

To provide outcome-based support designed to address the needs of children, young people affected children and young people (CYP) with a parent/carer or close family member in prison who may feel isolated or excluded in their home community, ensuring that these programmes meet individual need and further the aims of Ormiston Families.

As Team Leader, you will balance case management as well as line manage the Breaking Barriers Practitioners in the Cambridgeshire and Bedfordshire areas and lead a collaborative approach to setting best practice and a passion for improving the safety, health and resilience of children and young people.

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

- Provide line management and supervision to your direct reports through one-to-one case management.
- Balance a workload split between case management and staff management.
- Deputise for the Regional Manager, in their absence, including taking the lead on Safeguarding matters where appropriate.
- Collaborate with relevant Ormiston Families colleagues and other organisations to develop best practice within Breaking Barriers service and standardising delivery. Where improvements are recognised, ensure information is shared and quality improvement is driven up and standardised through appropriate organisational channels.
- To plan, evaluate and deliver a range of needs led one to one intervention across the county, using a trauma informed approach that place CYP participation at the heart of the service/support.
- To create safe space for CYP to express their feelings and emotions, have fun and build positive memories.
- Provide direct support/check in to children, young people and families on the waiting list, supporting them to work through the pre-service information and activities.
- Maintain clear and effective records of work with children, young people and families.

Generic Responsibilities

Support for children and young people

- To carry out initial assessments with parents/carers and partner agencies following referrals to the service and identify and agree individual outcomes for children and young people.
- To work one to one in the home, schools and other community settings with children needing emotional support who have been affected by imprisonment, using activities and resources that allow CYP to explore their feelings and emotions.

- To coordinate packages of support with CYP, with other agencies where appropriate, that meet the complex needs of children and young people, reduce risks, improve safety and work towards emotional well-being and development.
- Utilise a trauma informed approach and ensure that CYP voices are heard and listened to, through enabling self-advocacy and co-production of support/service delivery where possible.
- Contribute to the development of new, creative and innovative responses to CYP (and families) affected by imprisonment.
- Undertake activities that ensure maximum participation of CYP and families in services, e.g., 1:1's, telephone/text reminders, tech support for virtual sessions.
- To provide support to the parent carer where this will help improve engagement and outcomes for the CYP.
- To advocate for children and young people's views and needs within their families, schools and with other agencies as appropriate.
- Link (refer) CYP to other services/agencies as needed.
- To prioritise the safety and wellbeing of CYP and identify and act on CYP safeguarding and child protection issues following Ormiston families safeguarding policy and local procedures, ensuring that CYP have a voice in the process and that interventions are empowering and effective.
- To attend professional and multi-agency meetings (e.g.: Child in Need) to represent the child as required.
- To ensure services and support is delivered within an equal opportunities/ anti-oppressive framework and is responsive to the needs of CYP/families from disadvantaged group and marginalised communities.

Resource development and maintenance

- To maintain and ensure resources for the use with CYP are appropriate, clean, developmentally suitable, interesting, and enjoyable.
- Organise and prepare resources for sessions, including booking rooms/spaces suitable to undertake intervention with CYP.

Community Development

- To represent Ormiston at a range of agreed external meetings throughout the county and to work in partnership with other organisations, working to raise awareness of the impact of imprisonment and to influence positive change in policy and practice to achieve identified outcomes for children, young people, and families.
- To promote the service across the county, using a range of mechanisms, in order that partner agencies from statutory and voluntary sector are aware of the opportunities and can refer appropriately.
- Provide support, advice and guidance to other stakeholders that deliver support to CYP affected by the imprisonment of a parent or close family member.

General Administration

- To keep contemporaneous records and ensure the maintenance of accurate recording systems related to Service activities and / or CYP and families.
- To prepare reports as required on activities undertaken with children, young people and families for a range of purposes including reporting on identified outcomes.
- Assist with the preparation of Breaking Barriers information and publicity materials.
- Provided reports for as required by managers and funders.
- Contribute to the development and implementation of a monitoring and evaluation framework to assess the quality, benefit, and impact of the service to CYP, their families, stakeholders and the broader community.

Policies

- To work within Ormiston's mission and values, to working collaboratively to keep children safe, healthy and to build resilience.
- To implement all Ormiston policies and procedures.
- Comply with relevant external standards and Quality Marks.
- Maintaining confidentiality throughout on all issues, complying with GDPR requirements for data protection.
- Comply with internal and external regulations, procedures and other requirements in relation to the organisation, its services and facilities.
- Contribute to the review and development of appropriate policies and procedures and the development of best practice.

General Duties

- To undertake any other reasonable duty, which is appropriate to the grade when requested by Senior Staff.
- To be familiar with and comply with all Ormiston Families policies, procedures, protocols and guidelines.
- To demonstrate an understanding and commitment to the charity's values.
- You may be required to conduct other tasks based on the business needs.
