Volunteering Manager Central Team

A message from our CEO, Allan Myatt

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Volunteering Manager which is part of our central team.

As an organisation, Ormiston Families has agreed that our strategy for the next 3 years is to enable children, young people and their families to feel safer, healthier and more resilient. We also recognise that we need to build the resilience of the organisation, so we are fit to meet the challenges ahead.

Over the next few months we will continue to develop the strategy identifying key objectives for the next 3 years and making necessary organisational and operational changes to enable us to deliver the strategy in the new financial year. We see the recruitment of this post as critical in helping us achieve these objectives.

I wish you the best of luck with your application.

Best regards,

Who Are Ormiston Families?

Ormiston Families is one of the leading charities working with children, young people and families in the East of England. We take early and preventative action to support families to be safe, healthy and resilient. All our services help people to build stronger networks, learn from experience and feel in control of their own wellbeing. We can only achieve this with the people who choose to work for us.

About Our Volunteering Department

The Volunteering Manager sits within the central team at Ormiston Families and although the Volunteering Manager works alone, you will be supported in your role by other central office functions, such as HR and the operations team and report to the Director or People and Organisational Development.

There are approximately 80 registered volunteers in various roles across Ormiston Families, as well as several students undertaking a range of placements with us. You will work closely with those services involving volunteers and students to ensure that the roles are being carried out safely and effectively and that both volunteer and staff team are having a positive and valuable volunteering experience.

The Volunteering Manager will manage all elements of volunteering and student placements within Ormiston Families, including the recruitment, placement and retention of volunteers and students and the development of policies and guidance to support that infrastructure. Although the line management of the volunteer is managed within the service, you will have oversight of this and be on hand to support both the volunteer and staff members with their specific volunteering programme. The post holder will also act as the equality, diversity, and inclusion champion for Ormiston Families.

Safer Recruitment

Application Process / Post Requirement

You must demonstrate that you meet the competencies; experience, knowledge, skills, and qualifications, that are required for this role (see Job Description below).

You must complete and submit an online application form (via the 'Work with Us' section of our website) detailing in the personal statement section, how you meet the criteria.

Rights to Work in the UK (RTW) (in person or remote)

Recruitment Manager will need to see your original documents of your Rights to Work in the UK.

- UK Passport / Full UK Birth Certificate / Drivers Licence / Utilities Bill (proof of address)
 - EUSS Permanent Status or Pre-Status Share Code
 - Current EU/EAA/Swiss Citizen Passport
 - EU/EAA/Swiss Citizen Visa
 - Home Office Certificate
- If the interview is held in person, we will verify hard copy documents which you will need to bring with you to the interview.
 - If the interview is held remotely, you will need to email copies of your RTW documents to the Recruiting Manager before the interview. At the remote interview [Teams, Skype, Zoom] you will need to have the original hard copy documents available so the relevant checks can be undertaken.

Safeguarding and DBS Requirements for Your Role

Ormiston Families is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and adults at risk and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. DBS checks or police vetting will be required for relevant posts.

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Checks:

- As this position meets the definition of regulated activity under the Protection of Freedom Act 2012, appointments to this post will be subject to an enhanced DBS check with barred list check.
- Employment can commence once the check has been satisfactorily completed.
- If you have a conviction on your DBS check, an assessment of the relevance and impact of the conviction in relation to the post will be done to determine if the job offer can be confirmed.
- It is a serious criminal offence to knowingly apply for posts when you have been barred from working with children/young people and/or vulnerable adults.
- Additional questions for roles working with children, young people, or vulnerable adults to be explored at interview.
- As this post involves working either with children and young people or vulnerable adults Warner or Safer care motivational type questions may be asked during the interview process.
- These questions are asked to establish your suitability to work with vulnerable groups by understanding your attitude, behaviour, and responses to situations.
- The questions will relate to your inspiration for working with vulnerable groups, your ability to build relationships and your resilience when working with such groups and may also explore your attitude to the use of authority.
- If you feel you would find these questions about yourself difficult to respond to then you may wish to reflect upon your suitability for the post.

Disclosure

- Ormiston encourages all candidates called for interview to provide details of their criminal record at an early stage in the application process.
 - This information can be sent under separate, confidential cover to the Human Resources hr@ormistonfamilies.org.uk
 - Ormiston Families guarantees that this information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process.
- Unless the nature of the position allows Ormiston Families to ask questions about your entire criminal record only questions about "unspent" convictions as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 will be asked.
- Ormiston Families will ensure that every subject of a DBS Disclosure is aware of the existence of the DBS Code of Practice and make a copy available on request.
- Ormiston Families undertakes to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.
- Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with Ormiston. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of the offences.

Qualification

- Recruitment Manager will need to see your original copies of your qualification either in person or via social media.
- If the interview is held in person, we will verify hard copy documents which you will need to bring with you to the interview.
- If the interview is held via social media, you will need to email copies of your qualification to the recruiting Manager before the interview. At the interview you will need to have the original hard copy documents available so the relevant checks can be undertaken.
- If short-listed and you are required to hold a particular qualification for a post it is your responsibility to provide the relevant certification, to prove you are suitably qualified.
- Failure to produce documentary evidence of qualifications or undertake required courses/training may result in the termination of your employment.
- If a post requires you to take training or additional qualifications then, by accepting this post, you are agreeing to do the training or take the qualifications.

References

- If appointed, we will ask you for referee details which cover your past 3 years of employment, one of which must be your current/most recent employer.

Health Check

- If appointed and to ensure the post does not have a detrimental effect on your health or your health on your work, you will have to complete a health enquiry form, and may be required to have a medical via Occupational Health.
- This is to confirm that you are able to satisfactorily carry out the post without any impact on your health (taking account of any reasonable adjustments required).
- It will be separated from your application form and will not be seen by anyone involved in recruitment to this job.
