Brighter futures

Emotional Wellbeing Practitioner YOUUnited

A message from our CEO, Allan Myatt

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Emotional Wellbeing Practitioner with the YOUnited Service.

As an organisation, Ormiston Families has agreed that our strategy for the next 3 years is to enable children, young people and their families to feel safer, healthier and more resilient. We also recognise that we need to build the resilience of the organisation, so we are fit to meet the challenges ahead.

Over the next few months we will continue to develop the strategy identifying key objectives for the next 3 years and making necessary organisational and operational changes to enable us to deliver the strategy in the new financial year. We see the recruitment of this post as critical in helping us achieve these objectives.

I wish you the best of luck with your application.

Best regards,

Allan Myatt

You must complete and submit an online application form (via the 'Work with Us' section of our website) detailing in the personal statement section, how you meet the criteria.

Rights to Work in the UK (RTW) (in person or remote)

Recruitment Manager will need to see your original documents of your Rights to Work in the UK.

- UK Passport / Full UK Birth Certificate / Drivers Licence / Utilities Bill (proof of address)
 - EUSS Permanent Status or Pre-Status Share Code
 - Current EU/EAA/Swiss Citizen Passport
 - EU/EAA/Swiss Citizen Visa
 - Home Office Certificate
- If the interview is held in person, we will verify hard copy documents which you will need to bring with you to the interview.
 - If the interview is held remotely, you will need to email copies of your RTW documents to the Recruiting Manager before the interview. At the remote interview [Teams, Skype, Zoom] you will need to have the original hard copy documents available so the relevant checks can be undertaken.

Safeguarding and DBS Requirements for Your Role

Ormiston Families is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and adults at risk and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. DBS checks or police vetting will be required for relevant posts.

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Checks:

- As this position meets the definition of regulated activity under the Protection of Freedom Act 2012, appointments to this post will be subject to an enhanced DBS check with barred list check.
- Employment can commence once the check has been satisfactorily completed.
- If you have a conviction on your DBS check, an assessment of the relevance and impact of the conviction in relation to the post will be done to determine if the job offer can be confirmed.
- It is a serious criminal offence to knowingly apply for posts when you have been barred from working with children/young people and/or vulnerable adults.
- Additional questions for roles working with children, young people, or vulnerable adults to be explored at interview.
- As this post involves working either with children and young people or vulnerable adults Warner or Safer care motivational type questions may be asked during the interview process.
- These questions are asked to establish your suitability to work with vulnerable groups by understanding your attitude, behaviour, and responses to situations.
- The questions will relate to your inspiration for working with vulnerable groups, your ability to build relationships and your resilience when working with such groups and may also explore your attitude to the use of authority.
- If you feel you would find these questions about yourself difficult to respond to then you may wish to reflect upon your suitability for the post.

Disclosure

- Ormiston encourages all candidates called for interview to provide details of their criminal record at an early stage in the application process.
 - This information can be sent under separate, confidential cover to the Human Resources hr@ormistonfamilies.org.uk
 - Ormiston Families guarantees that this information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process.
- Unless the nature of the position allows Ormiston Families to ask questions about your entire criminal record only questions about "unspent" convictions as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 will be asked.
- Ormiston Families will ensure that every subject of a DBS Disclosure is aware of the existence of the DBS Code of Practice and make a copy available on request.
- Ormiston Families undertakes to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.
- Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with Ormiston. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of the offences.

Qualification

- Recruitment Manager will need to see your original copies of your qualification either in person or via social media.
- If the interview is held in person, we will verify hard copy documents which you will need to bring with you to the interview.
- If the interview is held via social media, you will need to email copies of your qualification to the recruiting Manager before the interview. At the interview you will need to have the original hard copy documents available so the relevant checks can be undertaken.
- If short-listed and you are required to hold a particular qualification for a post it is your responsibility to provide the relevant certification, to prove you are suitably qualified.
- Failure to produce documentary evidence of qualifications or undertake required courses/training may result in the termination of your employment.
- If a post requires you to take training or additional qualifications then, by accepting this post, you are agreeing to do the training or take the qualifications.

References

- If appointed, we will ask you for referee details which cover your past 3 years of employment, one of which must be your current/most recent employer.

Health Check

- If appointed and to ensure the post does not have a detrimental effect on your health or your health on your work, you will have to complete a health enquiry form, and may be required to have a medical via Occupational Health.
- This is to confirm that you are able to satisfactorily carry out the post without any impact on your health (taking account of any reasonable adjustments required).
- It will be separated from your application form and will not be seen by anyone involved in recruitment to this job.

Job Description

Job Title: Emotional Wellbeing Practitioner

Service: YOUUnited

Location: Queens Street, March

Job purpose:

Ormiston Families is proud to provide a blend of counselling, guided self-help, and psychosocial interventions to children (aged 4-12 years) and their families/carers across Cambridgeshire and Peterborough. The Emotional Wellbeing Practitioner roles play a key role in working across both our referral hub and treatment teams. Day to day, the post-holder will be completing assessments and supporting our psychosocial and guided self-help offer to young people. We have adopted an innovative delivery model which adopts a blend of virtual and face to face sessions.

The post-holder will work within the Ormiston Families YOUUnited Service delivering, under supervision, high-quality, brief, outcome focused evidence-based support to children and young people experiencing mild to moderate mental health difficulties. The role will deliver 1:1 sessions, support children to engage with digital therapy and support the delivery of therapeutic groups both online and face to face. The post holders' will be encouraged to support the design and development of our pathways and contribute to building a clear view on the impact of the therapeutic support we deliver.

The post holders will have experience of working with, and providing evidence-based, brief therapeutic support to, children, young people and parents presenting with a range of mental health difficulties and challenging behaviour.

Main Duties and Responsibilities:

- Under the guidance of a Senior Practitioner, undertake assessment of presenting mental health concerns with children and caregivers and engage in collaborative treatment planning.
- Under the guidance of a Senior Practitioner, deliver evidence-based therapeutic interventions for children and young people with mild to moderate mental health problems.
- Assess risk and manage through appropriate safety planning. Ensuring risk of harm is appropriately reported in line with service procedures.
- Undertake safeguarding consultations with support from management in accordance with Ormiston Families.
- Screen and gather information to ascertain risk and determine eligibility for the YOUUnited service in accordance with service criteria.
- Deliver and evaluate therapeutic intervention packages through group or individual work with children and caregivers, as appropriate.
- Work in partnership to support children and young people experiencing mild to moderate mental health difficulties and their parents/carers, families and educators in the self-management of presenting difficulties.
- Support and empower children, young people, their parents/carers and families and their educators to make informed choices about the interventions being offered.
- Operate at all times from an inclusive values base, which recognises and respects diversity.
- Co-facilitate, as required, the delivery of a range of evidence-based parenting programmes.
- Prepare written reports and referrals to include identified needs, presenting issues, intervention offered, outcomes, and recommendations.
- Keep accurate and timely records according to service procedures.
- Provide advice, guidance and signposting to children, young people, parents and caregivers and professionals.
- Contribute to the continuous development of the service through case management and supervision.

- Practice, evidence and demonstrate an ability to manage one's own caseload in conjunction with the requirements of the team.
- Identify and report safeguarding concerns in line with service procedures and escalate cases where the level of need or risk is beyond the scope of practice of the postholder.
- Represent and promote the interests of children and vulnerable young people to maintain awareness of their needs amongst those delivering, planning, determining, and implementing relevant services.
- Maintain up-to-date knowledge of the wider social environment and update resources to inform the work undertaken.
- Undertake ongoing professional development and disseminate research and service evaluation findings in appropriate formats through agreed channels to colleagues.
- Engage with supervision in accordance with relevant professional/ethical frameworks.
- Work within Ormiston's mission and values and all policies and procedures, including Safeguarding, Equality and Diversity, Participation, Quality and Health and Safety. Comply with relevant external standards and Quality Marks.
- Travel to work at other Ormiston Families sites and clinic venues in the county as & when required
- Carry out any additional appropriate duties as instructed by the service manager.

Training and Supervision

- Prepare and present case load information to supervisors within the service on an agreed and scheduled basis, to ensure safe practice and the governance obligations of the worker, supervisor and service are delivered.
- Respond to and implement supervision suggestions by supervisors in practice.
- Engage in and respond to personal development supervision to improve competences and practice.

Professional

- Ensure the maintenance of standards of practice according to the employer and any regulating bodies and keep up to date on new recommendations/guidelines set by the relevant departments.
- Ensure that confidentiality is always protected.
- Ensure clear objectives are identified, discussed and reviewed with supervisor and senior colleagues on a regular basis as part of continuing professional development.
- Participate in individual performance review and respond to agreed objectives.
