Youth Support Worker #WeWill Service

A message from our CEO, Allan Myatt

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the post of Youth Support Worker in the #WeWill Service.

As an organisation, Ormiston Families has agreed that our strategy for the next 3 years is to enable children, young people and their families to feel safer, healthier and more resilient. We also recognise that we need to build the resilience of the organisation, so we are fit to meet the challenges ahead.

Over the next few months we will continue to develop the strategy identifying key objectives for the next 3 years and making necessary organisational and operational changes to enable us to deliver the strategy in the new financial year. We see the recruitment of this post as critical in helping us achieve these objectives.

I wish you the best of luck with your application.

Best regards,

Allan Myatt

Who Are Ormiston Families?

Ormiston Families is one of the leading charities working with children, young people and families in the East of England. We take early and preventative action to support families to be safe, healthy and resilient. All our services help people to build stronger networks, learn from experience and feel in control of their own wellbeing. We can only achieve this with the people who choose to work for us.

About Our #WeWill Service

Ormiston Families' #WeWill service is one element of a wider partnership led by the Ormiston Trust as part of the national #iWill youth social action initiative. The service aims to empower children and young people in the Great Yarmouth area to champion mental health and wellbeing in their schools and the wider community through peer mentoring and youth-led social action.

Schools and Wellbeing Ambassadors will also be supported by a team of Youth Support Workers to make positive contributions to their local communities via youth-led social action projects. Wellbeing Ambassadors and their peers will be given the opportunity to highlight areas within their local community where they want to make a real impact. The #WeWill service will support them to do this through help with planning and delivering their social action projects.

About the role of Youth Support Worker

The role of Youth Support Worker is to work alongside Wellbeing Ambassadors (children and young people), education staff and Ormiston Families colleagues to deliver high quality support in planning, implementing and evaluating youth-led social action projects within school environments and the local community. You will work within a team of Youth Support Workers working across 15 schools. You will have responsibility for engaging with 5 of those schools, working flexibly across the cohort where needed.

You will be a highly motivated and organised individual with knowledge of youth-led social action and how to plan, deliver and evaluate social action projects. You will have a recognised qualification in Youth Work and/or relevant, evidenced experience.

Safer Recruitment

Application Process / Post Requirement

You must demonstrate that you meet the competencies; experience, knowledge, skills, and qualifications, that are required for this role (see Job Description below).

You must complete and submit an online application form (via the 'Work with Us' section of our website) detailing in the personal statement section, how you meet the criteria.

Rights to Work in the UK (RTW) (in person or remote)

Recruitment Manager will need to see your original documents of your Rights to Work in the UK.

- UK Passport / Full UK Birth Certificate / Drivers Licence / Utilities Bill (proof of address)
 - EUSS Permanent Status or Pre-Status Share Code
 - Current EU/EAA/Swiss Citizen Passport
 - EU/EAA/Swiss Citizen Visa
 - Home Office Certificate
- If the interview is held in person, we will verify hard copy documents which you will need to bring with you to the interview.
 - If the interview is held remotely, you will need to email copies of your RTW documents to the Recruiting Manager before the interview. At the remote interview [Teams, Skype, Zoom] you will need to have the original hard copy documents available so the relevant checks can be undertaken.

Safeguarding and DBS Requirements for Your Role

Ormiston Families is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, young people and adults at risk and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. DBS checks or police vetting will be required for relevant posts.

Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) Checks:

- As this position meets the definition of regulated activity under the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012, appointments to this post will be subject to an enhanced DBS check with barred list check.
- Employment can commence once the check has been satisfactorily completed.
- If you have a conviction on your DBS check, an assessment of the relevance and impact of the conviction in relation to the post will be done to determine if the job offer can be confirmed.
- It is a serious criminal offence to knowingly apply for posts when you have been barred from working with children/young people and/or vulnerable adults.
- Additional questions for roles working with children, young people, or vulnerable adults to be explored at interview.
- As this post involves working either with children and young people or vulnerable adults, Warner or Safer care motivational type questions may be asked during the interview process.
- These questions are asked to establish your suitability to work with vulnerable groups by understanding your attitude, behaviour, and responses to situations.
- The questions will relate to your inspiration for working with vulnerable groups, your ability to build relationships and your resilience when working with such groups and may also explore your attitude to the use of authority.

- If you feel you would find these questions about yourself difficult to respond to then you may wish to reflect upon your suitability for the post.

Disclosure

- Ormiston encourages all candidates called for interview to provide details of their criminal record at an early stage in the application process.
 - This information can be sent under separate, confidential cover to the Human Resources hr@ormistonfamilies.org.uk
 - Ormiston Families guarantees that this information will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process.
- Unless the nature of the position allows Ormiston Families to ask questions about your entire criminal record only questions about "unspent" convictions as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 will be asked.
- Ormiston Families will ensure that every subject of a DBS Disclosure is aware of the existence of the DBS Code of Practice and make a copy available on request.
- Ormiston Families undertakes to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.
- Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with Ormiston. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of the offences.

Qualification

- Recruitment Manager will need to see your original copies of your qualification either in person or via social media.
- If the interview is held in person, we will verify hard copy documents which you will need to bring with you to the interview.
- If the interview is held via social media, you will need to email copies of your qualification to the recruiting Manager before the interview. At the interview you will need to have the original hard copy documents available so the relevant checks can be undertaken.
- If short-listed and you are required to hold a particular qualification for a post it is your responsibility to provide the relevant certification, to prove you are suitably qualified.
- Failure to produce documentary evidence of qualifications or undertake required courses/training may result in the termination of your employment.
- If a post requires you to take training or additional qualifications then, by accepting this post, you are agreeing to do the training or take the qualifications.

References

- If appointed, we will ask you for two references one of which must be your current/most recent employer within the last three years

Health Check

- If appointed and to ensure the post does not have a detrimental effect on your health or your health on your work, you will have to complete a health enquiry form, and may be required to have a medical via Occupational Health.
- This is to confirm that you are able to satisfactorily carry out the post without any impact on your health (taking account of any reasonable adjustments required).
- It will be separated from your application form and will not be seen by anyone involved in recruitment to this job.

- 1.3. To work in partnership with participating schools in generating interest in the project throughout the student population, ensuring diversity and inclusion is maintained at all times.
- 1.4. To work with Wellbeing Ambassadors, education staff and Ormiston Families colleagues to collect and evaluate data.
- 1.5. To host regular sessions with Wellbeing Ambassadors to discuss their projects, peer mentoring and work in championing emotional wellbeing in order to safeguard their own wellbeing.
- 1.5. To adhere to an agreed activity contract relating to the overall number of children and young people engaged in the project and number of youth-led social action projects delivered within the given timeframe.
- 1.6. To keep coherent records of all activity in line with service protocols and use these records and outcome data to inform decision making.

1.7. To work collaboratively with relevant colleagues and partners including education staff, community groups, Ormiston Families colleagues and other key stakeholders.

2. Training Delivery and School Support

2.1. To work with Ormiston Families colleagues to deliver high-quality training to both Wellbeing Ambassadors and the education staff supporting them.

2.2. To provide effective and regular support to the education staff supporting the Wellbeing Ambassadors, such as support with organising peer support and developing in-school social action projects.

2.3. To provide effective and regular support to the Wellbeing Ambassadors, giving them regular opportunities to give feedback, voice concerns and seek support.

2.4. To engage in and respond to personal development supervision to improve competences and practice.

3. Other Professional Duties

3.1. To ensure that confidentiality is always protected.

3.2. To participate in individual performance review and respond to agreed objectives.

3.3. To attend relevant conferences/workshops in line with identified professional objectives.

3.4. To work within Ormiston Families' mission and values and all policies and procedures, including Safeguarding, Equality and Diversity, Participation, Quality and Health and Safety. Comply with any relevant external standards and quality marks.

3.5. To carry out any additional appropriate duties as instructed by the Senior Youth Support Worker.
